PRACTICE AT THE BAR

I practice in commercial litigation, with expertise in building and construction litigation and alternative dispute resolution.

I regularly act for major construction, development and mining related companies in a wide range of matters in all State and Territory superior courts, including at intermediate level and in ADR processes, arbitration, adjudication, expert determinations, and mediations.

I regularly appear unled before Australian Defence Force Disciplinary Tribunals (Court Martials and Defence Force Magistrates) in my role as a Squadron Leader (Reserve Legal Officer) in the Royal Australian Air Force. In 2020, I acted on behalf of a Defence Member in the Inspector-General ADF Afghanistan Inquiry into the conduct of Australia's Special Operations Task Group in Afghanistan between 2005 and 2016.

I have developed expertise in alternative dispute resolution. I am an accredited arbitrator and mediator and have been engaged by parties to act as an arbitrator, mediator and expert determiner in several construction related disputes. I am an adjudicator registered in the South Australia, the Northern Territory, Western Australia, Queensland and Malaysia. I have adjudicated payment disputes totalling more than AUD$100 million under these Acts. I am a regular speaker on alternative dispute resolution issues.

I am recognised in Doyle's Guide as a leading construction dispute resolution, commercial litigation and arbitration barrister and mediator.

Prior to my call to the South Australian Bar in 2003, I was called to the New South Wales Bar and had previously worked as a commercial litigation and dispute resolution solicitor in Sydney (with Allen Allen & Hemsley) and London (with Clifford Chance). Prior to returning to Adelaide, I joined the secretariat of the Claims Resolution Tribunal in Zurich, Switzerland where I arbitrated World War II-era claims on unclaimed Swiss Bank accounts.
