CAREER PROFILE

Alex commenced her practice in Victoria at Mallesons Stephens Jacques (now King Wood Mallesons) working on the State of Victoria's claim against the auditors of Tricontinental and the SBV. From there she worked at a number of firms, including Deacons (now Norton Rose Fulbright) with increasing focus on professional liability and insurance claims (particularly construction).

Alex practises in the commercial sphere with particular interest in professional negligence, liability, environmental and building claims. She was seconded to a financial institution and undertook asset recovery work for that institution. She is experienced in all forms of ADR, particularly mediation. Alex is the Victorian editor of the Insurance Law Bulletin, a past president of the Victorian chapter of the Australian Professional Indemnity Group and a former National Committee member.

Since 2022, Alex has been listed in Doyles Guide as leading Junior Counsel in Construction & Infrastructure Law. Previously, she has also been recognised in Doyles Guide for insurance and professional indemnity law.

From 18 June 2009 liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation
